

Conjunctions
Adjectives for food

Fill in the correct conjunction

UNLIKE, BESIDES, PROVIDED, UNLESS, THEREFORE

Choose the most appropriate sentence ending

a) I'm not keen on shopping for clothes, whereas

my brother isn't either

my sister loves it

b) I used to argue with my brother

However, we sometimes fell out

However, we remained good friends

c) I enjoy living in the city centre despite

it's so noisy

the noise

d) Although we arrived late for the concert

they wouldn't let us go in

we managed to get good seats

e) We got on well when we shared a flat in spite of the difference in our ages

the fact I was much younger

1. Tim is completely _____ his father.

2. She came first. _____ she got a good seat.

3. I won't tell you the truth, _____ you promise not to tell anybody.

4. They can listen to music _____ they don't disturb the others.

5. The trip is too expensive. _____, I don't really like hot weather.

Which word would best describe the food?

SPICY, RICH, BITTER, SOUR, STODGY, SICKLY, CRUNCHY, BLAND, SAVOURY, GREASY

1. This coffee really needs more sugar adding to it. _____
2. There's rather a lot of fat on these chips. _____
3. How many litres of cream did you put in this sauce? _____
4. It's not a sweet dish. It's got salt and herbs in it. _____
5. I'm sorry I don't like this. It's like eating a lemon. _____
6. The chocolate was too sweet. It made me feel ill. _____
7. The celery is just too fresh. _____
8. I'm not very keen on curry. It's too hot for me. _____
9. The food was too heavy. It took ages to digest. _____
10. It hasn't really got a lot of flavour, has it? _____