

Phrasal Verbs

Substitute the object by a noun and change word order if necessary

1. Can you turn off the TV?
2. Please, could you fill in the form?
3. I like these shoes. I would like to try these shoes on.
4. Where can I plug in my computer?
5. Can you look after my cat while I am on holiday?
6. I bought a sweater that is too small for me. I have to take the sweater back to the shop.
7. We don't have anywhere to stay tonight. We need someone to _____.
8. You've left the towel on the floor. _____.

Can you _____?

Could you _____?

Can I _____?

Where can I _____?

Can you _____?

I have to _____ to the shop.

_____

_____

Replace the verb by a phrasal verb

1. The bakery produces three hundred pies each day.
2. Our budget is going to be reduced due to the economic situation.
3. The storm delayed the game by a week.
4. The team wasted its chance at the semifinal.
5. The rent has been increased again.
6. She finished her book this morning.
7. The books on history occupy three shelves.
8. The cup just broke in my hands.
9. The bomb exploded right after the president left the office.
10. The dog was chasing the cat when it climbed up the tree.

get through
bring down
put off
kick up take up
go off
turn out throw away run after come apart